

THE DAILY BULLETIN.

MONDAY, EVE. JANUARY 20, 1885.

The Western Mail Association has advanced the price of mails about five per cent.

There is a large decrease of wheat acreage in this State owing mostly to cold weather.

There are more than 125,000 Baptists in the State, with an average of ten churches to every county.

Ten thousand bushels of coal were given away to the poor of Louisville last week by the city authorities.

There are eighteen hundred families at Cincinnati depending on the Associated Charities for the necessities of life.

The amount paid in the last five years for pensions, writes a Washington correspondent to the New York Sun, exceeds $300,000,000.

The failures of the last seven days are: In the United States, 371; Canada, 40; total, 411, as compared with a total of 430 last week.

The Department of Agriculture reports that a large part of the Kentucky wheat crop is still in original hands, and is being held for better prices.

Blunt's resolution to the Treasury Department to collect all whisky taxes at the expiration of bonded period is not likely to be reported soon.

The Secretary of the interior has issued a rule by which applicants for pensions, etc., may discharge agents and designate new ones without filing any complaint.

The aggregate length of the railroads of this country is something over 125,000 miles. In the tremendous disproportion of length to breadth, the railroads are exceeded perhaps only by the Congressional speeches on the Inter-State Commerce bill.

In the Senate a bill to increase the number of inspector generals of the army was passed. It provides for one inspector general with the rank of brigadier general, two inspector generals with the rank of colonel, two with the rank of lieutenant colonel and two with the rank of major.

The House Committee on Public Health has decided to recommend an appropriation of $25,000 for the National Board of Health, and $100,000 to be used at the discretion of the President in preventing the spread of cholera, should it appear in this country before the next Congress assembles.

The Covington Commonwealth thinks it commendable rivalry which induces towns to seek to rank high in tables of population and says: "The town which makes the best efforts to improve the roads running into it, best provides for its schools, demands the cleanest administration of local affairs, and which keeps down the taxes, will be apt to show the largest increase of population in 1890."

The Philadelphia Record says: There are those who think school teaching easy work. Five or six hours a day seem little to men or women who work eight or ten hours. Then there is a whole holiday every Saturday, several legal holidays and months of vacation, during which pay runs on all the same. Yet let those who, not brought up to teaching, think it easy try it awhile for a change, and the chances are that they will soon wish to be back at their former business. To those whose eyes or muscles are really much overworked school teaching might, even with all its drawbacks, be some relief; but the majority of those whose present occupation consists in the performance of some definite task would find that the compressed worry of five hours teaching was more exhaustive than twice its length of ordinary work.

It is no easy matter to learn to keep within decent bounds the uncivilized tendencies of forty or fifty small children most of them longing for fun, some little less or unwell, others too pert, all on the watch to catch the teacher, and without mercy for her faults or peculiarities. It is no easy task to not only maintain order but to educate at the same time, and if too often the order is maintained and the education neglected it is really not to be wondered at, for no teacher can do for forty, fifty or more children what she could do for twenty. Mechanism precludes by force of circumstances, and both teachers and taught, unless rare is taken, are likely to starve for want of blood. And here comes in another part of the duty of the common-school teacher, she (the feminine is used because female teachers are vastly in excess) must study at home and must meet other teachers in teachers' meetings if her teaching is to be fruitful. The teacher whose only aim is to somehow or other worry through the hours of attendance ought not, however admirable or clever she may be, to be a teacher.

A DUEL POSSIBLE.

Young Holman Floors the Wrong Man for Insulting a Lady.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—On Friday evening Mrs. Stewart opened her elegant reception rooms for a general reception of official and fashionable society. Stewart was alone with lights from step to step. A big crowd was there. Among others present were young Holman, son of the honor congressman, and Don Carlos Castro, secretary of the Venezuelan legation. During the ball which followed the reception, some underling of one of the South American legations insulted a lady friend of young Holman, and she complained of it to the young hoosier. He and the other young son of the party were somewhat chafed with wine and the pleasures of the dance. He got from the young lady a hasty personal description of the offender, and rushed off to find him. He found the teatro in the gentlemen's dressing room. White with passion he waited up to De Castro: "Take that, you infernal scoundrel!" The words were accompanied by a stinging blow from the shoulder, planted tremendously on De Castro's mouth. It was totally unexpected and it stunned him. Holman bent over him to give him another, but other young men in the room interfered. Young Holman was caught by Charles Moore, of Syracuse, N. Y., son of Admiral Moore, and restrained with threats. Then a burly California lumberman, who was at the time Mr. Stewart's house should not be made the scene of a disgraceful brawl. By this time the dressing room was crowded. Before young Holman could be pacified several blows were passed between members of the hot-headed crowd, and a young society man by the name of John Knickerbocker, and a general fight seemed imminent. The burly Californian, however, played policeman so effectively as to put an end to the affair. It said that John Knickerbocker only regrets that he hit the wrong man, and has apologized to De Castro.

GOV. IRELAND EXCITED.

He Wants Protection for Texans Living on the Mexican Borders.

ACSTIS, Tex., Jan. 20.—Gov. Ireland, in his inaugural address, uses the following language: "Since I take message to the two houses was penned, the knowledge has reached me of the perpetration of a series of horrible crimes, murders and thefts on Texas soil by incursions of predatory bands from Mexico. Since it has become known that neither Mexico nor the United States will surrender of our own citizens to be taken to the other government to be tried for crime, the people on the right bank of the Rio Grande have become emboldened, and they stand on Mexican soil covered with the blood of our women and children, and their looting in sight of our people. I have made repeated efforts through the secretary of state, to induce a discussion of the propriety of amending the treaty of 1801 as to permit any one, no matter where his allegiance may be, to be extradited, but no results have followed. Commercial treaties and money affairs seem to be of more importance than the blood of our people. In the last few days I have written to the president, giving him full accounts of the condition of affairs on the Rio Grande, and have also informed him that Texas can, if need be, protect herself, and minute companies and state troops at that border have been directed to protect our people without reference to nice points of international law. If the federal troops, whose duty it is, under the constitution, to draw, are too tender to patrol the border, or if the few companies in the interior consider a show at dress parades of more importance, it will seem that their presence on our soil is of little practical use. The governor concludes with the statement that his remarks were not intended for criticism of the commanding officer in Texas, (meaning Gen. Stanley,) but a criticism of the general management of the war department.

ASTONISHING ELECTION FRANK.

CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—A recount of ballots just completed by the county special grand jury shows definitely that the proposition to appropriate $100,000 for an additional police force, declared by the canvassing board to have been carried, was in reality lost by several hundred votes, and that through fraud, aided by stupidity and carelessness, $100,000 of the city's funds have been misappropriated. A single precinct of the 171 in the city was found from which a perfectly correct return of the vote on the police appropriation was made, and the proposition actually received over four hundred less votes than were credited to it by the canvassing board. It is stated that indictments will be voted against seventy-five per cent of the 513 judges who served at the election, and that they will not be indicted jointly, but separately. The clerks of the election will not be indicted. The expectation, it is stated, is that the indicted judges will be fined from $10 to $50 each, and that the majority of them will go into court, plead guilty and pay their fine.

UNRELIABLE AND SUICIDE.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 20.—The police on being notified that a murder and suicide had been committed in Mulberry street, discovered the bodies of Michael Roche, a young Irishman, and his wife, Annie, fairly waiting in blood. The wife was dead, but the man, with his face and head, was alive, but unable to speak. He gazed at the officers with wild, glassy eye balls, and with his hand still clutching the razor with which the butchery had been committed. No one seemed to know the cause of the tragedy. Roche and his wife arrived from Liverpool on New Year's night, and which time quarrels and family broils were frequent. Friday night, Roche, in a drunken condition, and with a heavy knife, closed his wife through the streets. He was probably intoxicated when he committed the deed. He died in a few hours.

SHE FLEWED HIS GUN.

AMSTERDAM, Jan. 20.—When Gary Williams, an attaché of Harris & Donnell's store, looked up on Friday he saw before him Miss Alice Bowdoin. She had just as well as love in her eyes. Gary begged for time to get on his feet. He said, "I'll rescue your clothes," Gary laughed as she caught him around his waist to the ordinary office, where they were married. "You were," said the newly made wife to an officer, "I was a little foolish to begin with, and this marriage was necessary."

THE CONDENSER.

Fresh, Pithy News Items Hoisted Down for the Huddled Reader.

Lechian C. Dallas, postmaster at Salineville, O., was noted for his clean, neat, and James Connel, a miner, near Delphos, O., was found (ruined to death in his hotel).

Capt. Benked, of Virginia, was strangled to death at Phillips, W. Va., by his false teeth.

The imports of dry goods at the port of New York for the week ended January 20 were $1,860,000.

The Pittsburg postoffice has been admitted to the privileges of the clearing house association of that city.

Loss of thirty per cent of meat cattle and sixty per cent of sheep, by cold, in Texas. Aggregate loss, $40,000,000.

George H. Fox murdered John Holliday at Channing, Ill., because of the latter's abuse of his wife, who is Fox's daughter.

Reports from the country districts of Canada are to the effect that a number of persons have been frozen to death.

Thomas J. Chapman was hanged at Charleston, Ill., for the murder of his employer, Nicholas Hubbard, last fall.

The Indiana legislature defeated the bill for a constitutional amendment. The civil rights bill was recommended to the committee.

The daughter of Chief Justice Chase, of Maryland, was burned to death at Annapolis. Her night dress caught from an open grate.

The corpse of a man in the Susquehanna at Port Deposit, Md., resulted in flooding the lower portion of the town to the depth of three feet.

An internal machine was found in the room of Dr. Funk, a Chicago medical student. The discovery was made through his arrest for the larceny of books.

Nightly dances in Kansas border towns, urging that the Indian territory should be opened up to settlers, and ensuring the government for prohibiting the same.

Anthony W. Hays, regularly ordained minister of the Christian Church, was hanged yesterday, at Marietta, Tex., for killing Wm. Henry, a white man, in November 1883.

The Central Trust Company of New York, has brought suit in the circuit court at Indianapolis to secure $1,000,000 of stock of the Welsh railroad by foreclosure of mortgage. The amount of the outstanding indebtedness of last year's whisky pool is found by the auditing committee to be about $750,000, which, it is claimed, it will be difficult to meet.

Wm. Berry, brother-in-law of Wm. Davis, superintendent of the Mexican Central Railway, was murdered by Mexican bandits, twelve miles from Simulco, Mexico, and a posse is in pursuit.

Ton Duzing, an old trapper and Indian hunter, was killed and eaten by wolves within two miles of a logging camp near Metropolitan, Mich. He had killed thirteen of the wolves before being overpowered.

No Wonder.

A MAN WHO SUFFERED MENTAL AND PHYSICAL AGONY EIGHT YEARS PROCLAIMS HIS HAPPINESS.

Mental agony is dreadful, but when that and physical misfortune combine, it is simply terrible. Such was the condition of Geo. W. Frampton, of Huntingdon, W. Va., for eight years. He was the victim of necrosis—that is, the leg bone at the ankle was inflamed and mortified, which caused running sores. He says: "Pieces of bone the size of a silver three cent piece came out of the sores on my leg. The discharge from the sores was almost continual, and I was unable to walk. For eight years I have been doctoring. I had been under the treatment of a physician at Newport, Ky., for a year; another at Burlington, O., attended me for three years; and a doctor here at Huntingdon worked with me for a long time. None of them did me any good, and they all finally said my case was hopeless. A few months ago I commenced trying PERUNA, and now I am well. I can walk as good as anybody, and have perfect use of my limbs."

Mr. Alf. Lusk, Wooster, Ohio, writes: "DR. HARTMAN, Columbus, O. I have been a great sufferer from that dreaded disease chronic catarrh of the stomach. I have thoroughly tried your MANLIN, and it has done me more good ten-fold than all the doctors' prescriptions, and I am now cured."

Mr. Edgar Harte, Smetzer, P. O., Elk county, Pa., writes: "I have bought several bottles of your PERUNA, and find it to be of great benefit. I also gave it to some of my friends; they experienced the same result."

Mr. R. Wollen, 45 and 47 Ross street, Pittsburgh, Pa., writes: "I am taking PERUNA with good results, and can highly recommend it to all who are afflicted with the different dry throat for one of your books. They claim they have none left at present. Please do me the favor to send me one."

W. W. Russell, druggist, Canonsburg, Pa., writes: "I handle your medicine, PERUNA. I have sold immense quantities of it, and consider it a staple article. I have a great many customers who think there is no medicine like it for a tonic or for building up the system. I recommend it as a safe and reliable remedy."

Callista Fishel, Malvern, Ohio, writes: "I take pleasure in recommending the use of PERUNA and MANLIN to any one afflicted with any form of lung or bronchial trouble. I have been for some time afflicted with a very bad cold, and have tried the bottles of PERUNA entirely cured me."

MURDER SYSTEMATIZED

BY AN ASSOCIATION OF ASSASSINS IN FLORIDA.

Band Together to Kill All Who Incur Their Enmity—Horrible Stories of the "K. K. C."—a list of Members of this Terrible Society.

BRADENTOWN, Jan. 26.—The discovery of the existence at Bradentown, in this state, of an organized assassination society was followed at the examination by sensational developments. The discovery of the society was incident to the murder of C. B. Abbe, postmaster and United States land commissioner at Sarasota, a few days ago. As he was passing A. C. Bidwell's store, in company with a friend named Moorhouse, two men stepped from behind the building, one of whom shot Abbe dead without warning, and ordered Moorhouse to walk on or share a similar fate. Moorhouse saw the corpse dragged across the beach, placed in a boat and carried down the bay. Since that time it has not been seen. Moorhouse is said to have recognized the man who fired the shot as Charles Willard. Subsequent discoveries led to the arrest of eight men, several of whom are said to have confessed to their connection with the assassination society and described its workings.

The organization was called the S. S. V. C., the cabinet letters standing for Secret Vigilance Committee. Its object was the removal by death of all persons objectionable to its members. Meetings have been held at two sessions at the same place. Its officers consisted of two judges and a captain, the former pronouncing sentence and the latter attending to the details of its execution. A physician is said to have founded the organization. After becoming acquainted in the town after his arrival, three or four years ago, he is said to have first taken Bidwell into his confidence, telling him that he belonged to a similar organization in the west where many were known to him, even women and children have been sacrificed when husbands and fathers could be reached in no other way. Bidwell is said to have eventually acquiesced in the doctor's proposition and the membership of the organization at Sarasota is said to have grown to eighteen or twenty. It is also alleged that chapters of it exist in other places, but none of the prisoners have as yet confessed words. It has been asserted, however, that a branch exists at Tampa, and that a physician is one of its officers. Persons considered above suspicion, are said to have been found to belong to the gang. When a man's membership was desired he was led to believe that the organization was similar in character to Masonic societies. Once in, however, he was said to have meant death. How many have fallen victims to the organization's vengeance is unknown.

It is said to have been confessed, however, that in addition to Abbe a respectable citizen of Bradentown, named Riley, was one of the victims. At a meeting he was pronounced worthy of punishment. Sentence of death was pronounced upon him and four men were appointed to kill him. This occurred six months ago, and others are said to have shared a similar fate. Riley was shot while riding along the road, dragged from his horse and his throat cut. Beyond the fact that two men were implicated in the crime the authorities could learn nothing concerning him. Two roads led from the postoffice to Riley's house. Louis Cato and Thomas Dryman were said to have been concerned on one of them and Joseph Anderson and Dr. Andrew on the other. Riley, the man who took the Cato-Dryman road and perished, is already mentioned.

It is now supposed that Abbe's throat was cut after he was shot, one of the prisoners is said to have confessed that the two of death prescribed by the society's constitution called for three chances of a bullet, and the cutting of the victim's throat to make death beyond doubt. The eight men said to be under arrest are Dr. Hunter, Mr. Bartholomew, John and James Fletcher, Thomas Freeman, Louis Cato, John Tipton and Dr. Andrew. Rev. Mr. Lowe, it is rumored, was sentenced to be whipped on account of a quarrel standing between him and his squire, but this sentence was eventually reconsidered. The alleged high standing of the society's members raises the disclosures all the more astounding.

Excitement in Gen. Toombs' Town.

MARY, Ga., Jan. 26.—The town of Washington, in this state, the home of Gen. Toombs, the birthplace, by actual count, of forty-three members of a single Georgia legislature, has always maintained an exclusive social standing. It was the first town ever named after Gen. Washington. Just now now its people are in a fever of excitement over an article which appeared in the Sunny South, of Atlanta. The article was signed "R. S.," dated from Washington, and stated that the crying evil of that place is the betrayal of married women by married men. As no marital scandal was ever known there, profound indignation exists, and Gen. Toombs is said to have exhorted his wrath against the writer. The funny part of the story is that there is but one person in Washington with the initials "R. S.," and she is the wife of a colored preacher. The editor of the Sunny South and no knowledge of his contributor's color, and thus fell into a trap, out of which he will make haste to free himself.

Frozen Cattle.

DALLAS, Tex., Jan. 26.—The cold snap continues in Texas, and reports from all parts of the state show the loss of cattle and sheep to be appalling. The extremely dry summer left the ranges in a bare condition, and the cattle were unable to live through a severe winter. It is probable that thirty per cent. of the meat cattle and sixty per cent. of all the sheep in the state will be lost. In Bexar county half the sheep died Wednesday before last, and it is thought that Thursday night's heavy sleet killed most of the remainder. The aggregate loss will not run short of $1,000,000.

SHOOTING SHOWS THE DEPENDENT HANDS.

YUMA, Ariz., Jan. 26.—Gov. Villagran, of lower California, has arrived here. He left Ensenada, Mex., with a volunteer force of twenty men. There he encountered a force of the Mexican mutineers, and killed one and captured nine. These are being held in Mexican territory. One of the governor's party was killed. The object of Villagran's visit is to secure the return of the prisoners captured by the American troops. Doubt exists whether his request will be complied with. Lieut. McDonald is in close pursuit of the remainder of the gang, and it is almost certain that all will be captured or killed.
